

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

VOL. XXVIII

ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 13, 1896.—TEN PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

newness through and boys and all past seasons

orders—the best season's good

OS.,

ALL.

CO.

DS.

NOT POLITICAL, SAYS JUDGE HALL

His Appointment Without Significance Influences Just Now.

SPEAKS OF SECRETARY SMITH

Believes the Secretary Will Not Oppose Crisp.

LITTLE'S APPOINTMENT SEEMS CERTAIN

Colonel W. C. Glenn Is Being Urged as Judge Hall's Successor—Washington Gossip.

Washington, March 12.—(Special)—Judge John I. Hall returned from Georgia this morning. In speaking of his appointment as general attorney for the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad he said:

"There is no political significance whatever in my appointment. The position was offered me five weeks ago, and since that time I have had the question under consideration. I decided to accept it, because I would prefer it to the position which I now hold under the government. I want to say that Secretary Smith knew nothing about it until after I had the offer and I had decided to accept it. I would not, under any circumstances, accept private employment and use it for political effect, and I want to say further," continued Judge Hall, "that I have not believed for several weeks that Secretary Smith would be a candidate for the United States senate from Georgia."

It was given out at the interior department this morning that Colonel W. A. Little, of Columbus, had been tendered the appointment of attorney general for the state to succeed Judge Hall. Though some of Mr. Little's friends held that his large practice in Georgia would prevent his leaving it for year, I understand today that he has notified Secretary Smith that he can arrange his business in Georgia and will accept the appointment. Because of the honor of the position more than the salary Colonel Little will accept it. Among the Georgia congressmen Colonel Little is recognized as one of the ablest lawyers in the state and his appointment is endorsed by each and every one of them.

Since the exclusive announcement of Judge Hall's retirement in the columns of The Constitution Secretary Smith has had many applications for the position from well known Georgia lawyers. He had, however, decided to tender it to Colonel Little before any of them had been received. The acceptance of the place by Colonel Little seems to have been received without his having heard of his appointment. At least, telegrams from Columbus in which Colonel Little says he had not been tendered the place, would indicate that. There is also an apparently strong movement from Georgia in the interest of an Atlanta candidate for that position.

The Atlanta candidate is Hon. W. C. Glenn and the indorsements come from prominent men all over Georgia. Several of the members of congress from Georgia have called on the secretary in the interest of Colonel Glenn and indorsements have been received from judges of the supreme court, state officials, federal officials, and prominent lawyers and citizens of Savannah, Augusta, Macon, Rome, Cartersville, Dalton and other parts of the state. It is an indorsement of which any man might well be proud.

Aldrich-Robbins Case.

The house consumed at of today in discussing the Aldrich-Robbins contested election case from Alabama.

Judge Bartlett, of Georgia, made one of the strongest speeches of his life in opposition to the unseating of Mr. Robbins. Judge Bartlett demonstrated clearly that Mr. Robbins was fairly and honestly elected. Yet the opposition offered to let him go, and by a strictly party vote the Alabama democrat will be unseated to make room for Aldrich, a republican fusionist. Though he will lose his case Judge Bartlett added much by his speech today to the reputation he has already made as a man of ability and a democrat of value.

Not Reached Yet.

The supreme court failed to reach the Sunday night trial court, and probably get to it tomorrow. Attorney General Terrell is yet here awaiting to present his argument to the court. The case is a test one. It is brought against the Alabama Great Southern railroad for running freight trains on its tracks across the extreme northwest corner of the state of Georgia. The state has a local law against the local law of Georgia against running freight trains on Sunday cannot apply to interstate traffic. This is the question the supreme court must decide. Mr. Terrell is representing the state of Georgia.

Goodyear and Deep Water.

Colonel C. P. Goodyear appeared before the house river and harbor committee today asking for an appropriation for the work he had done in dredging in deepening the Brunswick harbor and for the passage of a bill similar to that which was passed by the last house, but failed to get to the president in time for signature. Colonel Goodyear was accompanied by both of the Georgia senators and several of the representatives.

DO NOT WANT TO LOSE HIM.

Griffin Hopes Judge Hall Will Continue To Make His Home There. Griffin, Ga., March 12.—(Special)—While the people of Griffin are very glad to learn of Judge John I. Hall's advancement, it is the almost universal wish that he will come to make his home here. It is hardly probable that more than three people, if so many, knew that he had resigned until it was told in yesterday's Constitution. Even then there were many who could scarcely believe it, thinking that perhaps there was some mistake. Judge Hall was here only a few days ago, leaving for Washington just the day before the news of his advancement reached him. Absolute nothing can be learned here in regard to his plans and arrangements for the future. His friends here are highly gratified that he should have received and accepted such a satisfactory offer.

The most prominent theater from Columbus over the Georgia Midland collided with a wagon containing a small boy on the outskirts of the city today. The wagon was dismasted so that the boy and male escaped unharmed. Inquiry failed to disclose to whom they belonged.

J. H. Hall, of Atlanta, spent yesterday in Griffin.

The "Galaed" opera troupe, which has been here for several days, left for some of the smaller towns in the state.

Colonel John J. Hunt spent yesterday with his Griffin friends.

Colonel G. Gandy Jordan, of Columbus, arrived there yesterday returning from home attending a meeting of the reorganization committee of the Georgia Central and Gulf railroad held in Richmon-don, Va.

Hon. Charles I. Branan, of Fulton, spent yesterday here circulating among his friends.

E. Bass left last night for Milledgeville, where it is believed he will purchase a stock of goods and engage in business.

Colonel John J. Hunt spent yesterday here in the interest of that paper.

The first meeting of this particular society was held yesterday to the present cold snap, as it practically insures a good peach crop. The damage was so very slight as to be almost inappreciable, while the effect of stopping the trees back for several weeks will be of great value.

SOUTH STILL LEADS.

Report of the Progress in Industrial Enterprises.

Baltimore, March 12.—The Manufacturers' Record's summary of industrial enterprises reported from the south during the past week shows that the increasing activity continues unabated.

Among the leading enterprises reported for the week were the adoption of plans by the Atlanta Central railroad for the construction of a 1,000,000 bushel grain elevator at New Orleans, a $1,000,000 company to be established in Atlanta to build an eleven-story office building; a $200,000 depot at Fort Worth, Tex.; a $20,000 hotel by North Carolina capitalists at Charlotte, N. C.; a $50,000 lumber company and extensive coal mining operations in Alabama; a $200,000 marble company at Birmingham, N. C.; a three-dive-barrel four mill at Lafallete, Tenn.; a steel bolt mill at Chattanooga; a $100,000 electric light plant at Ocala, Fla.; a $100,000 tool and machine company at Atlanta; a $100,000 cotton seed oil mill at Augusta; a $30,000 electric light plant and waterworks at Lafayette, La.; several extensive contracts for the enlargement of cigar companies, a $10,000 company which occurred near Bell's mill on the Choctawhatchee river. Palmer was sealing with his brother-in-law and stepped into a deep hole and found himself in a tight squeeze. He was drowned. He was unharmed, and it is stated that a few months ago he insured his life for $2,000, making the policy payable to his cousin, Dr. Lee Riverbank.

Three Children Drowned.

Montgomery, Ala., March 12.—(Special)—A special from Eufaula says that three little negroes, the children of George Plessie, while walking a long across Cowpens creek near Eufaula, fell into a deep hole and were drowned. Only one of the children was recovered up to this time.

An Old Negro Dropped Dead.

Montgomery, Ala., March 12.—(Special)—Oliver Heard, a negro, seventy-five years old, dropped dead about 9 o'clock this morning in front of his home on Hall street in the vicinity of the Red Bridge road. The man had been quite well up to this morning when he went to visit some friends and was drowned. It is said that his death was caused by heart disease.

CANOVAS'S STATEMENT.

Senator Frye Says We Owe No Gratitude to Spain.

New York, March 11.—Senator William P. Frye says to the World: "Premier Canovas lays stress in his cablegram to the World on the fact that Spain has taken steps to prevent the repetition of its inhumanity in repressing disorders within her own bounds, and if any injury has resulted from the rioting of her citizens she would have been made to pay for it. I do not think that we owe her any gratitude for doing this."

Arranging Rebuttal Evidence.

Montgomery, Ala., March 12.—(Special)—Oliver Heard, a negro, seventy-five years old, dropped dead about 9 o'clock this morning in front of his home on Hall street in the vicinity of the Red Bridge road. The man had been quite well up to this morning when he went to visit some friends and was drowned. It is said that his death was caused by heart disease.

The Governor Will Attend the Meet.

Montgomery, Ala., March 12.—(Special)—Considerable interest is felt here in the race meeting in Birmingham, and many here who are interested in the sport and in finance will attend. The management has selected Monday, the opening of the governor's day, and the chief executive and a panel of friends from here will be on hand to witness the meet.

The Bishop's Birthday.

Montgomery, Ala., March 12.—(Special)—A party of Episcopalians will go from Mobile on Saturday to be present at the celebration of the birthday services in the church of the birth of Right Rev. R. H. Lee, senior bishop of the diocese of Alabama. The bishop will be on hand and friends from all over the country will be present.

SHERIFF FOR SIXTEEN YEARS.

Butt's Sheriff Will Not Run Again in Butts.

Jackson, Ga., March 12.—(Special)—Mr. J. O. Beauchamp, the present sheriff of Butts county, and who has been sheriff for sixteen years, has announced to his friends that he will not be in the race for sheriff.

Freeze at Opelika.

Opelika, Ala., March 12.—(Special)—Opelika and vicinity were held by a freeze last night, the thermometer fell to 32 degrees. All garden plants were killed. Fruits in some localities had badly injured.

Evidences of Murder.

Raleigh, N. C., March 12.—Since February 10, when L. W. Winkler, a white resident of Newbern, has been missing, a fisherman has found his body in the Neuse river. An inquest reveals the fact that he was drowned. There are evidences of murder.

Aged Woman Burned to Death.

Raleigh, N. C., March 12.—This morning during the absence of the remainder of the family, Mrs. Fannie Evey, seventy years of age, was burned to death at the home of her son, Henry M. Evey, general store-keeper of the Seaboard Air-Line. Her body was found in the kitchen, which was so burned that she was unrecognizable. It is thought she was removing the blower from the grate and had an attack of vertigo, which caused her to fall.

Justice Prayor Promised to Allow Project to Die.

Raleigh, N. C., March 12.—A new bill, introduced by J. H. Siddle, administrator of the estate of W. C. Williams, of R. R. 1, for $10,000 damages for his killing, and an attachment has been issued on Rees's property to satisfy any judgment that may be rendered. Rees will be remembered, as the author of the Williams case.

This is the first case of this character recorded in this state in very many years interest will be watched with great interest.

Annual C. E. Convention Closed.

Charleston, S. C., March 12.—The annual convention of the Christian Endeavor societies of South Carolina closed yesterday.

This is the first case of this character recorded in this state in very many years interest will be watched with great interest.

Griffith's Hopes Judge Hall Will Continue To Make His Home There.

Griffith, Ga., March 12.—(Special)—While the people of Griffith are very glad to learn of Judge John I. Hall's advancement, it is the almost universal wish that he will come to make his home here. It is hardly probable that more than three people, if so many, knew that he had re-

ALABAMA ANNA.

Dr. Baldwin Retires from the Legislative Race.

REASONS FOR HIS WITHDRAWAL

Meeting of State Embalmers—Four Persons Drowned—Damage to Fruit by the Cold.

Montgomery, Ala., March 12.—(Special)—About a month ago Dr. B. J. Baldwin announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for the house of representatives from this county and today he publishes a card announcing his withdrawal. Dr. Baldwin was looked upon as one of the sure winners at the primaries and his friends express the keenest regret that he did not continue in the race.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

He is a man of great ability and has made many friends in this state.

YLES

and high goods; also

ed

HOES ever seen in bit them. Peep into who will leave her enirs.

K

Whitehall St.

FIRE A GUN.

CITIZEN TELLS A

KILLING TALE.

Attacked by an Assassin

at from Close Range.

Gun Missing.

ith short whiskers and an giving his name as Mr.

He said that he was

now and his mind obscured

He said that he was not it. Around his shoulder hanging a pistol seab-abated him. He was when his gun was a short at least that is the suspect officers. Duke was found in a house and while standing in a dash out a bit pistol started those of the vi-

and J. B. Harris was saw the pistol back in Running to the lone cit-sidewalk, the officers took been attacked and shot at by

He said that a man ran up his United States

his second and last

heart, pulled the trigger.

Duke fell

the report of

hired him from his stupor

the officers approaching the others say that they saw and that no one approached

after the gun ended them will fire to Judge Andy morning why he fired a gun recruits of the city.

DEATH ROLL.

s. Lena Biggs.

March 12.—(Special)—Mrs.

life of Professor Thomas D.

the home of Mrs. Ada Am-terson in this county, for a long and severe illness.

is a most excellent Christian and a good man.

She was a sister of Col-of Oglethorpe coun-of Judge. She was burto the Baptist church, near

H. W. Williams, pastor of church at Elberton, conducted process.

MONROE WON.

damages Against The New World.

a decision in

has been awarded $5,000

New York World for dam-

for publishing a poem plaintiff to be delivered on the dedication of the Constitution or world's fall in the circuit court for some time was rendered against The Monroe 18, 1894. An appeal

the result here stated,

Laconia and Shipman

The World should pay the probable.

o's New Capitol.

March 12.—The legislature authorizing the expendi-

for a new capital, appropriated one million dollars and a compromise of probable.

the Pilot.

C. March 12.—(Special)—

the Char-

and Augusta railroad, and goes on the road, being fell from the pilot of a in the yards here and in a horrible manner,

they returned a verdict of sick, we gave her Castoria.

Child, she cried for Castoria.

the Miss, she clung to Castoria.

children, she gave them Castoria.

it's a

SAYS HE IS AN ANGEL.

Actions and Sayings of a Crazy Negro at Waycross.

Waycross, Ga., March 12.—(Special)—An-new Carnegie, a Savannah negro who dropped down in Waycross as an angel from heaven, as he said, was today or-the mayor to leave the city.

The negro said he had a son by his mother-in-law. His wife and his mother-in-law was responsi-to his wife. Carnegie said his mother-in-law by the name of conjuration, after having robed him of his wife, changed her appearance to correspond with his wife.

How did she do it in his afflictions?

She said "she jes' catch hol' er me an' pulled three hairs out'n my head an' made a spell come enter me by mix'n a bulb' ol' clothes and mix' wid my hair an' berrin' de-ing in de ground. It made me crazy. Dat's

TO PROVE AN ALIBI

In the Line of Defense in the Train Wreckers' Trial.

THE HEARING WAS CONTINUED

Until Saturday Morning—Visiting Railroad Officials—News and Gossip of Macon.

why I believe I is an angel from paradise. The negro says he is on his way to Palatka, Fla. He was arrested this morning for robbing the railway mail office at the passenger station. He had also snatched a letter from Mr. George Youmans at the post office. Before he had stolen the letters from the depot, went to the High school building and created a scene with his queer doings and ridiculous sayings. He was tried this morning by Mayor Knight for robbing the mails, and as he appeared to be crazy, Mayor Knight, let him go free. The negro went off and stayed awhile today, but he came back again tonight and is making himself a nuisance.

WITH BLACK FEAST.

OSTANALUA RIVER IS SOON TO BE STOCKED.

United States Fish Commission Will Shortly Send the Little Fish. Other News from Rome.

ROME, Ga., March 12.—(Special)—Through the efforts of Mr. Paul Black, son of Hon. John J. Black, the Ostanalua river is to be stocked with black bass by the United States fish commission.

Some time ago Mr. Black applied to Commissioner Ravenel for a consignment of minnows for the river. Mr. Ravenel sent up the requisition and in a few days a car load of fish will be sent south and in the car a large consignment sent to the call of Mr. John J. Black, who will look after their distribution in the Ostanalua.

It is thought by those familiar with the habits of this thrifty game fish that they will grow and thrive in the Ostanalua waters. Mr. Black is an experienced angler and understands their habits and needs. He has the support of the Georgia State Fish Commission, who are enthusiastic over the idea, believing that they will soon stock the stream abundantly.

A Festival Week.

The Rome Light Guards have definitely decided upon the first week in May as the festival week for that crack company.

They have secured ample quarters and from the bass are to have the biggest thing of the sort ever gotten up in the state, which will introduce many new and never seen. Music and dancing will be an every night affair of the week and the ladies of Rome have planned to give the boys a treat, convenience, assistance and encouragement in the work, power, both in the management of the bazaar and in the social features of the week.

An Atlanta Evening.

One evening of the week will be especially designated as Atlanta evening, and all the members of the company will be invited to participate in the festivities.

In addition to the bazaar there will be a military ball on Saturday evening, and the affair will be conducted in a style superior to anything ever undertaken here before.

To Bold a Church.

The Christians of Rome are determined to have a place of worship here, and have gone about the work with earnestness and zeal. Next Sunday, Rev. Dr. G. T. Thomas, an eminent Atlanta divine of the Southern convention, will preach in Rome, probably for that section. Messrs. Moore & Harris represent the defendants. Mr. Harris is the attorney for Mrs. Nobles, who is also from Twiggs county.

High Officials.

Second Vice President Baldwin and Chief Engineer of the Atlanta and Western, arrived in town on official business. Among matters attended to was a question of trackage in south Macon in connection with the Georgia and Dublin grade instead of going on the Southern grade, the latter with the view that the state has only one attorney, Colonel L. D. Shannon, who is the Southern's lawyer for that section. Messrs. Moore & Harris represent the defendants. Mr. Harris is the attorney for Mrs. Nobles, who is also from Twiggs county.

A Suit Imminent.

One evening of the week will be especially designated as Atlanta evening, and all the members of the company will be invited to participate in the festivities.

The Christians of Rome are determined to have a place of worship here, and have gone about the work with earnestness and zeal. Next Sunday, Rev. Dr. G. T. Thomas, an eminent Atlanta divine of the Southern convention, will preach in Rome, probably for that section. Messrs. Moore & Harris represent the defendants. Mr. Harris is the attorney for Mrs. Nobles, who is also from Twiggs county.

New Board Districts.

The county commissioners have decided that the constituents incident to the changing of militia districts, on account of the fluctuations of the state law, necessitate a permanent arrangement of the road districts.

The commissioners, according to the lines which formed the fifteen militia districts before the changes incident to the state law began, or January 1, 1895, will be re-arranged in the new districts, and some of them will be renumbered, while others will be left as they are.

This has been done to legalize the matter so as to compel men to work the roads, as there has been a great deal of trouble heretofore about district lines.

A Novel Proposition.

The old court house now occupied by one branch of the city school, has become a burden on the hands of the county authorities, so they have decided to advertise for a new location, and the new court house will be built on the site of the old.

The commissioners have decided to let the new court house be built on the site of the old, and the new court house will be built on the site of the old.

This has been done to legalize the matter so as to compel men to work the roads, as there has been a great deal of trouble heretofore about district lines.

The Granting of Transfer Privileges in Augusta Causes Wrangling.

Augusta, Ga., March 12.—(Special)—There promises to be a good deal of legal wrangling between the railroads and the city over the transfer of the franchise.

The old state railroad in Augusta—the first one in Georgia—had in the charter not simply the right to transport passengers in street cars, but the right to transport the same over the tracks of another and to charge so much for each passenger as the charter provided.

The charter expired last month and the railroads that enter the city have taken the opportunity to renew the charter.

The railroads then applied for a charter for a belt line around the city and threaten to keep from coming into the city to transport passengers over the tracks of another.

The railroads that enter the city have taken the opportunity to renew the charter.

The railroads then applied for a charter for a belt line around the city and threaten to keep from coming into the city to transport passengers over the tracks of another.

The railroads that enter the city have taken the opportunity to renew the charter.

The railroads then applied for a charter for a belt line around the city and threaten to keep from coming into the city to transport passengers over the tracks of another.

The railroads that enter the city have taken the opportunity to renew the charter.

The railroads then applied for a charter for a belt line around the city and threaten to keep from coming into the city to transport passengers over the tracks of another.

The railroads that enter the city have taken the opportunity to renew the charter.

The railroads then applied for a charter for a belt line around the city and threaten to keep from coming into the city to transport passengers over the tracks of another.

The railroads that enter the city have taken the opportunity to renew the charter.

FALL OF THE FLAKES

Belated Citizens Caught in a Fall of Beautiful White.

MELTED AS FAST AS IT FELL

The Snow King Declared War Last Night and Began Peeling Us with His Soft, Fleecy Bullets.

People who attended the theater and other places of entertainment last night were surprised to find the ground and buildings almost covered by snow when they emerged to the streets. Great big white flakes tumbled over themselves toward the sky obscured by the falling flakes.

The snow storm struck the city about 10:30 o'clock and within an hour the ground and buildings were covered. A white mantle of snow was laid over the top of every thing and the earth was transformed from darkness to a beautiful white. The flakes were as big as coins and the sky obscured by the falling flakes.

The snow storm struck the city about 10:30 o'clock and within an hour the ground and buildings were covered. A white mantle of snow was laid over the top of every thing and the earth was transformed from darkness to a beautiful white. The flakes were as big as coins and the sky obscured by the falling flakes.

The snow storm struck the city about 10:30 o'clock and within an hour the ground and buildings were covered. A white mantle of snow was laid over the top of every thing and the earth was transformed from darkness to a beautiful white. The flakes were as big as coins and the sky obscured by the falling flakes.

The snow storm struck the city about 10:30 o'clock and within an hour the ground and buildings were covered. A white mantle of snow was laid over the top of every thing and the earth was transformed from darkness to a beautiful white. The flakes were as big as coins and the sky obscured by the

The Constitution.

PUBLISHED DAILY, SUNDAY, WEEKLY.

The Daily (with Sunday) per year ... $3.00
The Daily (without Sunday) per year ... 6.00
The Sunday Edition (20 to 35 pages) ... 2.00
The Weekly ... 1.00
At these reduced rates, all subscriptions must be paid in advance.
We do not undertake to return rejected
MSS., and will not do so unless accompanied by return postage.

Where To Find The Constitution.

The Constitution can be found on sale at the following places:
WASHINGTON—Metropolitan Hotel
JACKSONVILLE—Drew & Bro.
CINCINNATI—J. R. Hawley, 183 Vine St.
NEW YORK—Brentano's, corner Broadway and Sixteenth Street.
CHICAGO—O. News Company, 31 Adams Street; Great Northern Hotel.
DENVER, CO.—Hamilton & Kendrick
MOBILE—McGraw & Eddy
KANSAS CITY, MO.—Van Noy Bros.
Do not pay the carriers. We have regular collectors.

10 PAGES.

ATLANTA, GA., March 13, 1896.

What Will The People Do About It?

The following dispatch is of exceptional interest at this time:

New York, March 12.—The executive council of the American Banking Association unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, The executive council of the American Banking Association, assembled at the meeting in New York city, declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value and recommend to all the bankers and to the customers of all banks the exercise of all their influence as citizens in their various states to select delegates to the great conventions of both the great parties who will declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value."

It will be observed that the associated banks, feeling and believing that it is to their pecuniary interest that the single gold standard should be maintained, have no sort of hesitation in declaring in favor of it through their executive council, and in urging the members of their association and those who need bank accommodations to use all their influence "to select delegates to the political conventions of both the great parties who will declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value."

There is a lesson in this declaration that ought not to be lost on the people. The banks declare that the single gold standard now exists in this country. They feel that it is to their pecuniary advantage that it should continue to exist. They know that it has doubled the value of the commodity in which they deal—money. They know that it has doubled the value of debts and interest. They feel that in this way it has enlarged their profits and increased their power. Consequently they believe that it ought to be maintained, and they do not hesitate to say so.

They do not beat about the bush. They do not prate about "parity" and the "debt-paying power of the dollar," for they know that the debt-paying power of the dollar remains precisely what it was twenty years ago, while its purchasing power has been doubled. They do not dodge, nor evade, nor try to deceive anybody. They know that the single gold standard now exists, and that it gives them a tremendous advantage in many ways, and they do not hesitate to declare that it ought to be maintained. They do not hesitate to avow their purpose to inaugurate a campaign of their own in order that the single gold standard shall be maintained.

Now, this is business. There is an openness, a boldness about the declaration of the associated banks that ought to attract the admiration of all honest men. Why cannot the people whose interests are hurt and whose prosperity is destroyed by the single gold standard be as open and as bold in expressing their views as the banks are? If the people—the merchants, the business men, the manufacturers and the farmers—the producers of the country—are handicapped by timid and time-serving politicians, it is their own fault. They have only to rise in their might, give expression to their desires, and the politicians who now seem to be timid and hesitating will be bold as lions.

But the people do not even have this excuse for a failure to express their views clearly and unequivocally. There are hundreds of democratic leaders as bold as the bankers, and these have left no room to doubt where they stand. But one thing remains, and that is for the people themselves to stand as united, as harmonious, and as bold, in favor of their own interests as the banks do for theirs.

It is useless to criticise the banks for their attitude. They think the gold standard is best for their interests, and it is—at least temporarily. We are of the opinion that the banks outside of the big money centers of the east will find that what the gold standard is putting in at one end it is pinching off at the other. We think that eventually they will be hurt more than they are helped. But that is neither here nor there. Temporarily the gold standard is enlarging their profits and gains, and they are in favor of it purely as a matter of business.

There are more than ten thousand voters to every bank in the country. Consequently the remedy of the people is to go to the polls and vote down the gold standard and restore prosperity to the country by remonetizing silver. This will not hurt any banker, but will promote the interests of all. The gold standard helps only those who deal in money—the banks and the money lenders—and hurts all who produce or deal in other commodities, for the process by which money, debts, taxes and the rates of loans and discounts have been doubled in value, has taken away half the value of the products of factory and farm—the products of human labor—reduced the demand for goods and cut down profits in all lines of business and mercantile pursuits.

Where To Find The Constitution.

The Constitution can be found on sale at the following places:

WASHINGTON—Metropolitan Hotel
JACKSONVILLE—Drew & Bro.
CINCINNATI—J. R. Hawley, 183 Vine St.
NEW YORK—Brentano's, corner Broadway and Sixteenth Street.

CHICAGO—O. News Company, 31 Adams Street; Great Northern Hotel.

DENVER, CO.—Hamilton & Kendrick

MOBILE—McGraw & Eddy

KANSAS CITY, MO.—Van Noy Bros.

Do not pay the carriers. We have regular collectors.

10 PAGES.

ATLANTA, GA., March 13, 1896.

What Will The People Do About It?

The following dispatch is of exceptional interest at this time:

New York, March 12.—The executive council of the American Banking Association unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, The executive council of the American Banking Association, assembled at the meeting in New York city, declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value and recommend to all the bankers and to the customers of all banks the exercise of all their influence as citizens in their various states to select delegates to the political conventions of both the great parties who will declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value."

It will be observed that the associated banks, feeling and believing that it is to their pecuniary interest that the single gold standard should be maintained, have no sort of hesitation in declaring in favor of it through their executive council, and in urging the members of their association and those who need bank accommodations to use all their influence "to select delegates to the political conventions of both the great parties who will declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value."

There is a lesson in this declaration that ought not to be lost on the people. The banks declare that the single gold standard now exists in this country. They feel that it is to their pecuniary advantage that it should continue to exist. They know that it has doubled the value of the commodity in which they deal—money. They know that it has doubled the value of debts and interest. They feel that in this way it has enlarged their profits and increased their power. Consequently they believe that it ought to be maintained, and they do not hesitate to say so.

They do not beat about the bush. They do not prate about "parity" and the "debt-paying power of the dollar," for they know that the debt-paying power of the dollar remains precisely what it was twenty years ago, while its purchasing power has been doubled. They do not dodge, nor evade, nor try to deceive anybody. They know that the single gold standard now exists, and that it gives them a tremendous advantage in many ways, and they do not hesitate to declare that it ought to be maintained. They do not hesitate to avow their purpose to inaugurate a campaign of their own in order that the single gold standard shall be maintained.

Now, this is business. There is an openness, a boldness about the declaration of the associated banks that ought to attract the admiration of all honest men. Why cannot the people whose interests are hurt and whose prosperity is destroyed by the single gold standard be as open and as bold in expressing their views as the banks are? If the people—the merchants, the business men, the manufacturers and the farmers—the producers of the country—are handicapped by timid and time-serving politicians, it is their own fault. They have only to rise in their might, give expression to their desires, and the politicians who now seem to be timid and hesitating will be bold as lions.

But the people do not even have this excuse for a failure to express their views clearly and unequivocally. There are hundreds of democratic leaders as bold as the bankers, and these have left no room to doubt where they stand. But one thing remains, and that is for the people themselves to stand as united, as harmonious, and as bold, in favor of their own interests as the banks do for theirs.

It is useless to criticise the banks for their attitude. They think the gold standard is best for their interests, and it is—at least temporarily. We are of the opinion that the banks outside of the big money centers of the east will find that what the gold standard is putting in at one end it is pinching off at the other. We think that eventually they will be hurt more than they are helped. But that is neither here nor there. Temporarily the gold standard is enlarging their profits and gains, and they are in favor of it purely as a matter of business.

There are more than ten thousand voters to every bank in the country. Consequently the remedy of the people is to go to the polls and vote down the gold standard and restore prosperity to the country by remonetizing silver. This will not hurt any banker, but will promote the interests of all. The gold standard helps only those who deal in money—the banks and the money lenders—and hurts all who produce or deal in other commodities, for the process by which money, debts, taxes and the rates of loans and discounts have been doubled in value, has taken away half the value of the products of factory and farm—the products of human labor—reduced the demand for goods and cut down profits in all lines of business and mercantile pursuits.

Where To Find The Constitution.

The Constitution can be found on sale at the following places:

WASHINGTON—Metropolitan Hotel
JACKSONVILLE—Drew & Bro.
CINCINNATI—J. R. Hawley, 183 Vine St.
NEW YORK—Brentano's, corner Broadway and Sixteenth Street.

CHICAGO—O. News Company, 31 Adams Street; Great Northern Hotel.

DENVER, CO.—Hamilton & Kendrick

MOBILE—McGraw & Eddy

KANSAS CITY, MO.—Van Noy Bros.

Do not pay the carriers. We have regular collectors.

10 PAGES.

ATLANTA, GA., March 13, 1896.

What Will The People Do About It?

The following dispatch is of exceptional interest at this time:

New York, March 12.—The executive council of the American Banking Association unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, The executive council of the American Banking Association, assembled at the meeting in New York city, declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value and recommend to all the bankers and to the customers of all banks the exercise of all their influence as citizens in their various states to select delegates to the political conventions of both the great parties who will declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value."

It will be observed that the associated banks, feeling and believing that it is to their pecuniary interest that the single gold standard should be maintained, have no sort of hesitation in declaring in favor of it through their executive council, and in urging the members of their association and those who need bank accommodations to use all their influence "to select delegates to the political conventions of both the great parties who will declare unequivocally in favor of the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value."

There is a lesson in this declaration that ought not to be lost on the people. The banks declare that the single gold standard now exists in this country. They feel that it is to their pecuniary advantage that it should continue to exist. They know that it has doubled the value of the commodity in which they deal—money. They know that it has doubled the value of debts and interest. They feel that in this way it has enlarged their profits and increased their power. Consequently they believe that it ought to be maintained, and they do not hesitate to say so.

They do not beat about the bush. They do not prate about "parity" and the "debt-paying power of the dollar," for they know that the debt-paying power of the dollar remains precisely what it was twenty years ago, while its purchasing power has been doubled. They do not dodge, nor evade, nor try to deceive anybody. They know that the single gold standard now exists, and that it gives them a tremendous advantage in many ways, and they do not hesitate to declare that it ought to be maintained. They do not hesitate to avow their purpose to inaugurate a campaign of their own in order that the single gold standard shall be maintained.

Now, this is business. There is an openness, a boldness about the declaration of the associated banks that ought to attract the admiration of all honest men. Why cannot the people whose interests are hurt and whose prosperity is destroyed by the single gold standard be as open and as bold in expressing their views as the banks are? If the people—the merchants, the business men, the manufacturers and the farmers—the producers of the country—are handicapped by timid and time-serving politicians, it is their own fault. They have only to rise in their might, give expression to their desires, and the politicians who now seem to be timid and hesitating will be bold as lions.

But the people do not even have this excuse for a failure to express their views clearly and unequivocally. There are hundreds of democratic leaders as bold as the bankers, and these have left no room to doubt where they stand. But one thing remains, and that is for the people themselves to stand as united, as harmonious, and as bold, in favor of their own interests as the banks do for theirs.

It is useless to criticise the banks for their attitude. They think the gold standard is best for their interests, and it is—at least temporarily. We are of the opinion that the banks outside of the big money centers of the east will find that what the gold standard is putting in at one end it is pinching off at the other. We think that eventually they will be hurt more than they are helped. But that is neither here nor there. Temporarily the gold standard is enlarging their profits and gains, and they are in favor of it purely as a matter of business.

There are more than ten thousand voters to every bank in the country. Consequently the remedy of the people is to go to the polls and vote down the gold standard and restore prosperity to the country by remonetizing silver. This will not hurt any banker, but will promote the interests of all. The gold standard helps only those who deal in money—the banks and the money lenders—and hurts all who produce or deal in other commodities, for the process by which money, debts, taxes and the rates of loans and discounts have been doubled in value, has taken away half the value of the products of factory and farm—the products of human labor—reduced the demand for goods and cut down profits in all lines of business and mercantile pursuits.

There are more than ten thousand voters to every bank in the country. Consequently the remedy of the people is to go to the polls and vote down the gold standard and restore prosperity to the country by remonetizing silver. This will not hurt any banker, but will promote the interests of all. The gold standard helps only those who deal in money—the banks and the money lenders—and hurts all who produce or deal in other commodities, for the process by which money, debts, taxes and the rates of loans and discounts have been doubled in value, has taken away half the value of the products of factory and farm—the products of human labor—reduced the demand for goods and cut down profits in all lines of business and mercantile pursuits.

There are more than ten thousand voters to every bank in the country. Consequently the remedy of the people is to go to the polls and vote down the gold standard and restore prosperity to the country by remonetizing silver. This will not hurt any banker, but will promote the interests of all. The gold standard helps only those who deal in money—the banks and the money lenders—and hurts all who produce or deal in other commodities, for the process by which money, debts, taxes and the rates of loans and discounts have been doubled in value, has taken away half the value of the products of factory and farm—the products of human labor—reduced the demand for goods and cut down profits in all lines of business and mercantile pursuits.

There are more than ten thousand voters to every bank in the country. Consequently the remedy of the people is to go to the polls and vote down the gold standard and restore prosperity to the country by remonetizing silver. This will not hurt any banker, but will promote the interests of all. The gold standard helps only those who deal in money—the banks and the money lenders—and hurts all who produce or deal in other commodities, for the process by which money, debts, taxes and the rates of loans and discounts have been doubled in value, has taken away half the value of the products of factory and farm—the products of human labor—reduced the demand for goods and cut down profits in all lines of business and mercantile pursuits.

There are more than ten thousand voters to every bank in the country. Consequently the remedy of the people is to go to the polls and vote down the gold standard and restore prosperity to the country by remonetizing silver. This will not hurt any banker, but will promote the interests of all. The gold standard helps only those who deal in money—the banks and the money lenders—and hurts all who produce or deal in other commodities, for the process by which money, debts, taxes and the rates of loans and discounts have been doubled in value, has taken away half the value of the products of factory and farm—the products of human labor—reduced the demand for goods and cut down profits in all lines of business and mercantile pursuits.

Nearly two-thirds of the male prisoners are unmarried, but only 40 per cent of the females are single.

The census report contains many other facts concerning crimes and criminals which will be of value to those who believe that the proper study of mankind is man.

How To Expedite Justice.

Judge Payne, of Chicago, has recently made some suggestions which he believes will shorten trials without interfering with justice.

The judge is in favor of having thirteen men in the jury box, so that when a juror is taken sick the extra man can take his place. But the thirteenth juror is to have no voice in deciding the case unless one of the jury becomes incapacitated. The other suggestions are as follows:

1. Absolutely no conversation between attorneys across the table.

2. Absolutely no discussion of the admission of evidence unless the court indicates a desire to have it argued.

3. Limitation of arguments. It is a remarkable case that cannot be argued in six minutes on each side.

4. To verdicts. If a verdict ought not to stand, the court should set it aside, then the trial should be set aside.

5. When it is manifest to the court that a plaintiff has not made out a case the court should give the defendant the right to drop the trial right there.

6. New York Advertiser. But over and above all such considerations, the most valuable is the fact that the over 12,000 Spanish troops have been mustered in Cuba and that the insurrection is more formidable today than ever. A year ago the insurgents were confined to the eastern province of Santiago. Now they overrun the entire island and are within sight of the gates of Havana. They do not know what to do, but they will probably be compelled to make a stand.

7. The leading Chicago lawyers indorse these recommendations, with the exception of the third, which limits argument to sixty minutes on a side. They contend that in some rare cases one hour is not long enough for an argument.

8. Something should be done to expedite justice. In proportion to population we now have eight times as many courts as England, but our dockets are crowded with cases, and many courts are two or three years behind with their work.

9. American girls should be protected from foreigners of the Maybrick stamp, and from the adventurers who masquerade under various titles of nobility.

10. The New York Tribune has a most curious feature of the latest trials that is the president's care to say that he does not know whether this latest delivery actually represents the views of the administration or the Cuban government, or not, presumably because, as he previously had "neglected to read all of it, supposing it represented nothing but a newspaper guess." If Secretary Olney inspired the statement, he is still at liberty to indulge the hope that this may really represent the president's wishes, although the irritated chief magistrate, without having taken the trouble to read it over before disavowing it, could not at the time say whether it did or not. Truly, this is a most dignified and creditable mode of discharging the responsibilities of a secretary of state.

11. Carlisle and the Republicans.

From The Louisville Courier-Journal.

IN GEORGIA.

lands of William McKinley before he realized that they fight on their hands. evident each day that sign of the anti-McKinley up contests in every district convention and state convention and delegations all along the line to be the plain McKinley men have throughout the south. No success in getting much greater, and so the flat has up contests and in the south from being a division of the national at St. Louis.

are looking out for the McKinley have anywhere in a small idea that they rate right on their hands, and rid of that idea the them. The political situation is later day politics in the. The schemers are and, it may be said in fine Italian hands are that Hon. M. G. Boyd, of the last senate and popular lawyer of be a candidate for the general, is followed by an from that gentile. Boyd will not be a candidate, Senator Boyd, after stating that he would be a candidate's mind. The senator is a strong man, and would in whatever race he is in who goes against him, in all human probability. There is no law stronger than the present, and he is certainly not in the possession of time. He is often talked with the fourth district, and should he be nominated, there would be a gamble for the office of senator, but he has no intention of for congress, at least will continue dispensing the governor and state two years.

ent of Hon. A. G. McCurry, a candidate for the presidential adds another interest, contest which promises to interest all one around, will have no opposition for he will be one of the strong men mentioned in connection with him are those who have opposition. Mr. Berner has his candidacy, though in of him in connection and are also talking of his for the presidency. In states, south Georgia, south-extreme north Georgia and are represented, speaking and as each man would in his own section, the doubtless be an interesting that Judge Roger not be a candidate for end of the two years which serve, and the further another Hon. Beverly Evans, the general of that circuit, year, means in all probability Evans will be a candidate that Judge Gamble will, Major Black does not run for congress.

Georgia comes the information the eleventh district Hon. of Dawson, will, in all to the senate. He is being of, and will hardly have in discussing the Roger Gamble's candidacy in the interest of the democratic party, says: will probably have one for the place, and the characterized the deme while Black was the rudely distanced. Judge on of, and integrity, all right on the financial stand point of the democratic be not, it would be energy to give to the consideration. No man present, the districts anti-democratic political the distress could have to represent this district. If Judge Gamble be opposed and to him John Sherman, gold miners the for coinage of in gold, the ratio of is making a good standard-district democracy in the Times-Advertiser draws between the "demands the gold monometallists, the "cuckoo," who are obnoxious. The picture is language:

the purpose of the re- gold monometallists, the man who takes sides with any concerned action of this part, and the ex- to oppose the ex- of Cleveland and Canton, of our government the small bankers to go with the com- smile, urging people to the, if not cornered by a fact, the demagogues of a man than the sup- ideas about the back yard

's proposal.

Times-Herald, of, wishes of constitutional of the States. He would draw a west of which no new formed in this union, communities perpetual proposal is repugnant American institutions, intelligent and orderly integral part of Ameri- of the American un- made law in the United popularly checked. Con- would increase at a day, the development, would suf-

for admission, equita- for admission, state- want organized political party which has abdicated

WILL IT BE PAVED?

Auburn Avenue May at Last Be Paved with Cubes.

A SPLIT IN THE COMMITTEE

Two Reports Will Be Presented to Council on Monday—How the Matter Stands.

Auburn avenue may be paved with cubes from Pryor to Butler street and it may not.

Two reports will be submitted by the street committee to the general council next Monday relative to the paving of that avenue and the consideration of those reports will be productive of interesting and possibly long talks by members of the municipal body as well as by residents along the streets and parties otherwise interested.

The committee on streets held a long session yesterday afternoon and it was a session which had for its pivotal point the Auburn avenue paving. Every member of the committee—Mr. Hutchinson, of the sixth ward, chairman; Mr. Mayson, of the first ward; Mr. Colvin, of the second ward; Mr. Morris, of the fourth ward; Mr. Culver, of the seventh ward—was present.

When the batch of papers touching the Auburn avenue paving were handed the chairman by the city clerk, Mr. Phillips, the secretary of the committee, Mr. Adams, one of the seven members, was absent first. It was a great bundle, however, it contained first the petition of residents of the avenue, within the distance specified in the preamble of the petition for paving on that street, or rather that part of the street from Pryor to Butler streets, with cubes. Then there was a report of what the council had adopted authorizing the ordinance from the street committee for the week. Attached to these was the petition of residents and property owners on the avenue who wanted no paving at all—no improvements whatever. The bundle was made still larger by many sheets of paper which had been traced by the historians of the committee's work up to the present time.

With the full details of the work up to date linked together with a patent pin, Chairman Hutchinson asked:

"What will you do with the matter, gentlemen?"

Several persons interested were present and all who wanted to talk were given the opportunity. It was simply the same old thing over again. Those who advocated the paving before repeated the plea they have advanced before, while those who don't want it did not find it necessary to glances at their notes, the frequent repetitions having made further rehearsals unnecessary.

The advocates for and against the paving having relinquished the floor the members of the committee went to work. Within a few minutes it was apparent that the old man had an interest in the committee membership, and before the conclusion came that division was so apparent that it resulted in the making of two reports—a majority and a minority report.

But the last meeting produced a clearly marked majority report, and the members which the clerk of council had surrendered to him after the meeting was over were largely in that minority.

It was the minority report which increased the bulk. That paper was signed by Mr. Hutchinson, chairman of the committee, and also by the members of the committee, and was a regular attendant of the meetings. The minority report was signed by Mr. Mayson, Mr. Colvin, Mr. Morris, Mr. Culver, and Mr. Adams.

The papers will be presented to the general council next Monday.

May Not Grant It.

Some weeks ago Captain Charles Tyler, who was brought to the city by his connection with the Atlanta Gas Light Company, sent a paper to the general council in which he asked that the Electric Light Company be required to comply with a previous contract.

It appears that some time ago the company secured the right to lay some tracks on the streets, facilitating the laying of coal and material. The line affected Captain Tyler's home and he now asserts that, before he got the company to lay a wire on his property, he had a right to lay a wire on the streets, and the only case on record. Tyler was in the original productions of "London Assurance," "Richelieu," and the "Lady of Lyons." He knew Bulwer personally, as he did nearly all the important personages of his day. Mr. Howe knew Joe Jefferson intimately. He thought a great deal of the old man, and when he met him, he said that Julia Arthur was a greater actress in some roles.

Henry Howe gave infinite pleasure to hundreds of thousands of people. May he rest in peace!

A LIVELY FIGHT.

Mr. R. O. Douglass and Mr. M. L. Willey in a Difficulty.

Mr. Robert O. Douglass and Mr. M. L. Willey met on the street yesterday morning, and after a short conversation engrossed in a personal difficulty. Several licks were struck before the police arrived and took the two men to a room. Douglass was entered against Mr. Douglass and he appeared in the police court yesterday afternoon as defendant. The case was postponed until today or until Mr. Willey appears in court against him. When it was called yesterday afternoon the arresting officer, Mr. Seelby, stated that he had subpoenaed Mr. Willey to be present, but that he had not come in.

Henry Howe gave infinite pleasure to hundreds of thousands of people. May he rest in peace!

ETCHED AND SKETCHED.

Judge Allen Fort returned from Washington yesterday afternoon. Last night he left for Dooley county.

Judge Fort stated that he was not ready to announce his candidacy for congress in the third. It is certain, however, that his announcement will come within a few days. There is hardly one chance in a thousand that he will fail to make the race. He has received a great many letters urging him to enter the race and pledging him support.

Judge Fort says that he found Judge Crisp deluged with letters from Georgia promising support. The ex-speaker has had to engage extra stenographers to answer his correspondence. It looks as though Judge Crisp will not have any trouble at all. Judge Candler has taken a position to submit the senatorial to a vote of the democrats at the primary to be immensely popular with the people.

Judge Fort says that he had a talk with Governor Atkinson before they left Washington. The governor did not state positively that he would be a candidate again for governor, his friends all believe firmly that the governor will accept a renomination and lead the party in the state again this fall.

Colonel Lon Livingston left last night for Washington. He spent the day in the city and saw some friends. Last night he stated that the field looks clear to him for the coming campaign. He rather looks for some opposition as a matter of course, for the election is opposed until two or three counties act, but he is not alarmed at the outlook.

"Some of my opponents have been casting around for a candidate to put up against me, but they do not seem to meet with much success," he remarked. "Tires or tires, or the Georgia road wrote to an Atlanta lawyer asking him to represent him. He replied that he was not friend enough to port me. Here and there around I hear of opposition occasionally, but all of them know that whoever goes into the race has got to fight every inch of the ground."

"Bill Howard will win in the eighth," said a prominent democrat from that district yesterday. "He is sure of the five counties of his judicial circuit, which are strong, and he will get enough money to give him the nomination. He is beat any other one candidate two to one. At Madison court last week every faction in the county promised to help him. In Elbert this week all the workers told him that they were for him. He is right on the strength of his record, and when his trial was over he told Captains Jennings that Carroll shot her."

The police were immediately notified to arrest him, and he was caught late in the night as he was entering his house. When he was arrested he stated that he had shot the woman, but that it was an accident. He was placed in jail and when his trial was over he told a story entirely different.

He said that he was standing at the head of the steps talking with the woman when they were approached by some one from the rear end of the hall. There were no lights in the hallway, and Carroll could not see in the dark. The fire was returned and during the fusillade that followed the woman was shot and mortally wounded.

On the strength of the woman's confession, Carroll was convicted and sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary.

Hotel Jackson Case Comes Up.

Two features of the hotel Jackson case will be argued this morning before Judge Candler in chambers.

There are many complications in the case and before the trial begins a judge of the supreme court, the case will be taken up today in regard to the settling of the suit.

The Jackson estate has applied for an order of the court to sell the furniture. This action was brought by the Brunswick-Woodstock company, who claim they hold a lien for the purchase money. The settlement of these two claims will be considered by Judge Candler this morning.

GOODWIN IN "AMBITION."

Henry Guy Carlton has written an excellent play, "Ambition," and it gives Mr. Goodwin the opportunity of puncturing his enemies.

It is the author's opinion that the matter which increased the bulk of that paper was signed by Mr. Hutchinson, chairman of the committee, and was a regular attendant of the meetings. The play was signed by Mr. Mayson, Mr. Colvin, Mr. Morris, Mr. Culver, and Mr. Adams.

The papers will be presented to the general council next Monday.

May Not Grant It.

Some weeks ago Captain Charles Tyler, who was brought to the city by his connection with the Atlanta Gas Light Company, sent a paper to the general council in which he asked that the Electric Light Company be required to comply with a previous contract.

It appears that some time ago the company secured the right to lay some tracks on the streets, facilitating the laying of coal and material. The line affected Captain Tyler's home and he now asserts that, before he got the company to lay a wire on his property, he had a right to lay a wire on the streets, and the only case on record.

Henry Howe was in the original productions of "London Assurance," "Richelieu," and the "Lady of Lyons." He knew Bulwer personally, as he did nearly all the important personages of his day. Mr. Howe knew Joe Jefferson intimately. He thought a great deal of the old man, and when he met him, he said that Julia Arthur was a greater actress in some roles.

Henry Howe gave infinite pleasure to hundreds of thousands of people. May he rest in peace!

A NEW TURNKEY.

Officer Steve Terry Succeeds Turnkey Cooper at the Station House.

Several changes in the working of the police force were made by Chief Connolly in an order issued yesterday. Patrolman Steve Terry was detailed as turnkey at the police station in place of Turnkey Cooper, deceased. Patrolman H. D. White and Patrolman J. C. Harries exchanged with Terry the turnkey of the morning watch and the turner to the police station. The new turnkey, Steve Terry, although he has read the paper, but no construction will be placed upon it until the general council meets next Monday.

TO MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY.

The County Democratic Executive Committee Called for the 18th Inst.

The democratic executive committee of Fulton county, of which Captain Evans P. Howell is chairman, has been called to meet in the hall of the basement of the courthouse next Wednesday, the 18th instant, at 12 o'clock.

The committee will, at its next meeting, take into consideration the call for the primary action of Fulton county in pursuance of the action of the democratic state executive committee at its recent session in Atlanta.

SWORDS TO BE CROSSED.

Spirited Debate at the Young Men's Christian Association.

There will be a joint meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association Literary Club and the Atlanta Business university this evening at the Young Men's Christian Association.

The exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

DIXIE ALL RIGHT.

Case Against Him and His Company Settled by Compromise.

The attachment of the baggage of the Dixie company by Miss Annie Justice, a former member of the company, hurt the house at the Lyceum theater last night, for the reason that many did not know what the company would show. The company was not embarrassed in the least, however, and last night's show was held all right. Yesterday the attachment was dismissed, the parties settling the matter by compromise.

Miss Justice, a former member of the company, and her lawyer in the case, sent the account here and the baggage of the company was attached by Mr. Fulton Colville for Miss Justice. Yesterday the company paid Miss Justice a part of her claim and the matter was thus compromised.

Roland Reed Coming.

Mr. Roland Reed will present his great comedy success, "The Woman Hater," at the Grand on next Monday night. In "The Woman Hater" Mr. Reed has an excellent vehicle for his unique talents. The play is farcical and burlesque, bright lines and telling situations. It is anti-climatic to a certain degree, but there is so much dash and go to the piece that the audience readily forgives this defect.

Died Last Night.

Mr. W. W. McWhorter died last night at 12 o'clock at her late residence, 196 East Georgia avenue. She had been sick some months with lung trouble and her death was not unexpected. The funeral will occur Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in Suwanee.

The story tells of the misfortunes and ad-

WAS THERE ERROR?

Argument Will Be Made in the John Carroll Case Today.

HE IS UNDER A LIFE SENTENCE

Several Weeks Ago Carroll Was Convicted of Killing Maggie Donahoo, His Sweetheart.

Argument on the motion for a new trial in the John Carroll case will be heard this morning by Judge Candler in chambers.

Carroll was given a life sentence by the late Judge Clark. A motion for new trial was immediately filed and argument on this motion will be given on Wednesday nights next with Wednesday matinees.

"COPPERS" ON BIKES.

THE POLICE MAY ADOPT THE BI-CYCLE PATROL SERVICE.

Chief Connolly Is Looking Into the Matter and Will Report to the Police Board.

Atlanta may soon witness an entirely new departure in the methods of work of the police department. A proposition to mount a number of policemen on bicycles to patrol the city is under consideration, and it is likely that something will be done in the matter.

At the last meeting of the police board a proposition was made that the chief of police be instructed to investigate the master of the police.

At the last meeting of the police board a proposition was made that the chief of police be instructed to investigate the master of the police.

Atlanta may soon witness an entirely new departure in the methods of work of the police department. A proposition to mount a number of policemen on bicycles to patrol the city is under consideration, and it is likely that something will be done in the matter.

At the last meeting of the police board a proposition was made that the chief of police be instructed to investigate the master of the police.

Atlanta may soon witness an entirely new departure in the methods of work of the police department. A proposition to mount a number of policemen on bicycles to patrol the city is under consideration, and it is likely that something will be done in the matter.

At the last meeting of the police board a proposition was made that the chief of police be instructed to investigate the master of the police.

Atlanta may soon witness an entirely new departure in the methods of work of the police department. A proposition to mount a number of policemen on bicycles to patrol the city is under consideration, and it is likely that something will be done in the matter.

At the last meeting of the police board a proposition was made that the chief of police be instructed to investigate the master of the police.

Atlanta may soon witness an entirely new departure in the methods of work of the police department. A proposition to mount a number of policemen on bicycles to patrol the city is under consideration, and it is likely that something will be done in the matter.

At the last meeting of the police board a proposition was made that the chief of police be instructed to investigate the master of the police.

Atlanta may soon witness an entirely new departure in the methods of work of the police department. A proposition to mount a number of policemen on bicycles to patrol the city is under consideration, and it is likely that something will be done in the matter.

At the last meeting of the police board a proposition was made that the chief of police be instructed to investigate the master of the police.

Atlanta may soon witness an entirely new departure in the methods of work of the police department. A proposition to mount a number of policemen on bicycles to patrol the city is under consideration, and it is likely that

EVERYTHING DULL.

Speculation Dull, Cotton Goods Dull, and Cotton Closed at the Lowest.

FOREIGN NEWS STILL BULLISH

Stocks Closed Quiet but Firm—Tobacco and General Electric Leaders in Activity.

New York, March 12.—The excitement in Tobacco subsided today and the transactions in the stock were only 60,800 shares, against 230,800 shares yesterday. The price ranged between 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 80 $\frac{1}{2}$, while yesterday sales were recorded all the way from 74 $\frac{1}{2}$ up to 82 $\frac{1}{2}$. The falling off in business was ascribed to the fact that the short interest in the stock had been covered. General Electric was second in point of activity and 37,000 shares were traded in. The stock first advanced to 100 $\frac{1}{2}$ and then dropped to 96 $\frac{1}{2}$ with a subsequent recovery to 97 $\frac{1}{2}$. The early advance was brought about by reports that the company and its chief competitor, the Westinghouse, had finally reached an agreement as to territory patents, etc. The directors were in session all day, but up to the close of the stock exchange, nothing in the nature of a settlement was given out. In the last hour on rumors of a serious hitch the stock dropped to 92 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 93 $\frac{1}{2}$, but near the close a rally to 97 $\frac{1}{2}$ ensued. There was little or nothing to the general market, although the under-tonne was strong throughout, the declaration of a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent on the common stock and the continuation of the posted rates of steering exchange having exercised a favorable influence. The new Erie stocks which were listed by the governors of the exchange yesterday were quoted 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ for the common, 32 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 34 $\frac{1}{2}$ for the first preferred and 24 for the second preferred. Special closing rates of 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent on the common showed gains of 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Iowa Central preferred, jumped 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent to 37 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Bonds were quiet and firm. The sales footed up only $36,000.

Treasury balances: Gold, $124,955,556; currency, $8,174,364.

Mosse on call easy at 26 $\frac{1}{2}$; last loan at 3 $\frac{1}{2}$; closing offered at 4 $\frac{1}{2}$; present mercantile paper 10 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Bar silver 65 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Sterling exchange easier with actual business in bankers' bills at 48 $\frac{1}{2}$ for 60 days and 54 $\frac{1}{2}$ for demand; posted rates \$4,374 to \$4,382; commercial bills \$4,369 to \$4,382.

Government bonds steady.

State bonds dull.

Railroad bonds firm.

Silver at the board was dull.

London, March 12.—Bar silver 31 7-16d.

Consols 100 $\frac{1}{2}$ for money and 109 15-16 for the account.

The following are the closing bids:

Am't Cotton Oil... 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ Mobile & C. 14 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't C. & S. 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ C. & S. 14 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't Sugar Refin'g 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ U. S. C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Am't. & C. 10 $\frac{1}{2}</$

K. D. D.
Cured of e's

THE WORLD OF WOMEN.

The unpublished photograph of Mrs. Langtry at her famous little hotel. The story is told by a writer in the New York Journal. When she was a simple, unpolished child, with a skin like alabaster and a soul unsophisticated from the world, running wild down in Jersey, a party of young men of higher rank than morals, traveling for pleasure, discovered the unknown beauty and reported her charms in words: "Bring her here," clamored the connoisseurs of feminine beauty, including their leader, the prince of Wales. "That we may behold such surpassing loveliness." But before this could be accomplished the Lily had married Mr. Langtry and ruined the various possibilities of a titled match, while the prince was still a boy.

"It is shocking! What poor, miserable, cheap looking girl any man sees everywhere! But that is like the thought world goes. They love finery, too. I think that is where so much mischief is done. Ladies wear superb costumes upon the street; working girls see them and strive to imitate them. Some, they come to think of nothing but money. I tell you that finery is the root of all evil quite as much as the love of money."

It may be of interest to feminine readers to know that Mme. Guy d'Hardelot herself dresses plainly, but elegantly, and almost always in black.

Model Leap Year Proposal.

From The New York Herald.

Woman—Life is a beautiful thing.

Man—Yes, indeed; especially in Paris.

Woman—Er—um. I said—"Yes, especially in Paris."

Man—Oh, Henry! You surprise me, but I—

Woman—It is best to accept the world as it exists. I was saying to live nobly is beautiful thing. By the way, what is Uncle Sam should annex Cuba?

Woman—Oh, Henry! How metaphysical! Calling yourself Uncle Sam and me—

Woman—believe annexation would be disastrous to all concerned.

Man—Oh!

Man—But the whole political situation in our country is bad at present. These domestic broils will ruin us.

Woman—But, Henry, we haven't quarreled.

Man—Er? What's that?

Woman—I said we hadn't quarreled. You said—

Man—I said nothing about ourselves. I regret that I have not succeeded in making you understand.

Man—Er—um. But you have, you have, indeed. Are they not from the noblest motives?

Man—Yes, indeed. The war is a just and righteous war.

Woman—Nonsense, Henry. All men say the war is a just and righteous war.

Man—Yes, indeed. I compare with you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—If you could have me for your own little play-thing.

Man—Never.

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

Man—What of that? You have a beautiful figure, here, and I am sure your father won't begrudge you.

Woman—I'm sure he will not. I wish you would ask him right away.

Man—Ask him! Ask him what?

Woman—What you did me.

Man—Good heavens! Miss Durham, what was that?

Woman—Certainly not! I know you never did. All the men say they never proposed to any other girl. And Henry, dear Henry, in the next room, I'll tell you, I know I am not worth anything.

Man—What's that?

Woman—I say I really am not worth anything.

WEDDING PRESENTS.

In Cut Glass, Solid Silver AND Eancy Goods.
We send goods on selection.
Write us before you buy.
We also engrave Wedding Invitations and Visiting Cards.
SEND FOR OUR SAMPLES.
J. P. STEVENS & BRO.,
47 Whitehall Street.

spring time
new blood!!!

good whisky is what you want: healthful and stimulating; builds you up; gives new energy and life and vim and push, but the whisky must be good.

"old velvet"!!!

that's the kind; at all first-class bars or our stores.

bluthenthal "0.80" & bickart

all sorts of whisky.
hello, 378! marieetta and forsyth sts.

OPiUM and Whiskey Habits cured at home with our own Balsam of particulars. See Dr. B.
M. WOOLLEY, M.D.
Atlanta, Ga. Office 404½ Whitehall St.

Our Method Never Fails To Cure.
All diseases that have been neglected or failed to yield to the treatment of less skillful hands soon get well under our treatment. Sufferers visiting speedy relief and a full cure can call on or write to Dr. H. N. Stanley & Co. for their symptoms blancks.

SPECIALTIES:
Syphilis, Stricture, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Hydrocele,
Varicocle, Varicocele, Lost Manhood, Night Losses, Piles
and all Rectal Diseases.

Office room 209 Norcross building, No.
29 Marietta street, corner of Peachtree and Marietta streets, Atlanta, Ga. Hours
8 to 12 m. 2 to 6 and 7 to 8 p. m. Sunday 10 to 1 p. m.

Tried Friends Best.
Fortythree years Tutt's Pills have proven a blessing to the invalid.
Are truly the sick man's friend.

A Known Fact
Forbillion headache, dyspepsia sour stomach, malaria, constipation and all kindred diseases.
TUTT'S Liver PILLS
AN ABSOLUTE CURE.

BRIDAL - - - PRESENTS

FOR YOUR FRIENDS.

Purchase only
New and Artistic Silverware,

That which is produced for the SEASON. Don't send gifts which have been carried in stock that every one is familiar with, as presents of this kind are not appreciated. Many spring styles of Sterling Silver—the production of the

GORHAM MANUFACTURING CO.

Are arriving almost daily and we show our new stock with pleasure.
Requesting an inspection of same.

Charles W. Crankshaw, JEWELER,
WHITEHALL, GOR. ALABAMA

ESTABLISHED 1857.

PETER LYNCH
95 Whitehall and 7 Mitchell Sts.

Dealer in Foreign and Domestic Wines, Liquors, Cigars and Tobaccos, Hardware, Guns, Pistols, Cartridges and Ammunition; Field and Garden
Seeds in their seasons. A Perfect Variety Store.
Orders from city and country promptly filled at lowest market price. Terms cash.

GRANT HOUSE

Born Atlanta, the principal retail store at 90 Whitehall, the Concord, all the leading retail stores and public buildings. Large garnet rooms, refurnished throughout, with every modern convenience. Reasonable rates, by the week or month.

N. N. ARCHER, Proprietor.
W. H. DAVIS, Manager.

SUED BY HER SON.

Mrs. M. J. Young Is Charged with Having Committed Fraud.

AN INJUNCTION IS ASKED FOR

The Case Will Be Given a Final Hearing
Saturday Morning by Judge
Lumpkin in Chambers.

An interesting petition for injunction will be heard tomorrow morning by Judge Lumpkin in chambers in which the plaintiff is Willie G. Young and the defendant is his mother, Mrs. M. J. Young.

More than ten years ago Willie Young, who was then nine years of age, received a severe injury by a fall on the Western and Atlantic railroad, and on account of this injury it was later on necessary for his arm to be amputated. Suit was brought against the road, and the sum of $5,000 was paid Mrs. Young, which Willie claims was only to be held by her.

His petition sets forth the fact that the money has been used by his mother and with the same proceeds she has erected houses on the lots and now collects the rents. He asks that she and Green & Mathews be enjoined from collecting the rents or in any way interfering with his property. The paper was presented to Judge Lumpkin yesterday, and he has set the case for a final hearing Saturday morning.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 152 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

May 6-12-20-27 apr 3-10 17 24 may 1 yr

MUNYON'S REMEDIES

DOCTOR YOURSELF

A Separate Cure for Each Disease.
All Druggists. Most ly 25 Cents a Bottle.

Munyon's Improved Homeopathic Remedy and Alkaloplastic Remedy, specially curing the more obstinate cases. Rheumatism cured in from 1 to 3 days. Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles quickly relieved.
Cataract positively cured. Many cases of various diseases promptly cured. Kidney troubles, piles, Neuralgia, Asthma, and all Female Complaints quickly cured. Movements of the body new life and vigor to the weak and debilitated men.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 152 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

May 6-12-20-27 apr 3-10 17 24 may 1 yr

ONE OF GEORGIA'S SONS.

Dr. William L. Jones To Discuss the Subject of Evolution.

Dr. William L. Jones is perhaps the most distinguished scientific scholar in the south.

His contributions to the magazines and other periodical literature of this section have made his name a household word from Texas to Virginia.

Since leaving the University of Georgia, with which institution he was identified for more than thirty years, Dr. Jones has devoted himself to his favorite studies, occasionally contributing a paper on some vital subject to the magazines and newspapers.

At the request of the members of the Saturday Night Club Dr. Jones has consented to deliver a lecture tomorrow evening on the subject of "Evolution." This announcement will no doubt attract a large number to the hall of the Young Men's Library Association, where the lecture will be delivered.

He further asks that his mother be compelled by an order of court to give him a lien on some of the purchased property to secure $666 of his money, and that she also be ordered to pay him all the remaining balance of the money which was paid her by the Western and Atlantic railroad.

Judge Lumpkin has notified the defendants to be present at the hearing tomorrow morning.

The following subscribers have been STEADILY GETTING BETTER.

Deputy Marshal Mitchell Will Soon Be Able To Resume His Duties.

The many friends of Deputy Marshal O.
E. Mitchell, who was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago, will be gratified to learn that he is steadily improving.

He is now able to walk with daily assistance from his disabled assistant and entertains the hope that he will soon be able to resume his duties.

For several days past the deputy has been able to do some little work at home.

The marshal, however, has not been willing for him to undertake more than he can stand in his present weak physical condition.

If the deputy marshal continues to improve he will soon be able to return to his post of duty. He has been a patient invalid for nearly two months. During that time numberless inquiries have been made at the office concerning his health.

THE DOG AND THE LAW.

Queer Story of a Lost Dog Which Got Its Master Into Trouble.

True to his word Will Dempsey had the young man who charged him with stealing his dog arrested yesterday.

Last Saturday Judge Foute heard a case against Will Dempsey, a young white man who lives on Magnolia street. Dempsey was charged with larceny by L. G. Gravitt, another young white man who lives at How-ell's station.

Gravitt says that he was given the Connally street property which was bought with his own money, but that his mother has taken the management of the property out of his hands and has placed it with Green & Mathews, who were responsible for the rents; at the same time, he says, his mother has sold the tenant to pay the money to the real estate agents and not to her son. Willie says that the real estate agents are now threatening to turn out the tenants which he secured for the houses unless all rents are paid to the firm under the instructions of his mother.

The petition concludes with the request that the judge order his mother to pay him the money she has placed in rents; that he will be entitled to the remainder of the money if he is not responsible for the disappearance of the valued dog.

The warrant was sworn out before Judge Foute and the preliminary trial was had before him. Dempsey, who was not told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he was held, has been held in custody and will be held until he is tried.

Before the trial was proceeded with Dempsey applied to Attorney G. Wolf, and announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held.

For the trial was proceeded with
Dempsey, who was held in custody and
announced that he was ready for trial,
but told his prosecutor that he would be arrested for malicious prosecution if he
was held